CHICKS VICTORS IN CLOSING GAME WITH NASHVILLE

Eddie Foster Outpitches Bub-ber Jonnard and Tribe Gets One Decision Out of Three From the Volunteers.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., July 11.—The Memphis Chickadees pulled out of Nashville Thursday night at 11 bells when they came out of three to a three-game series with the Nashville Volunteers. The Chickadees won the final affair of the series here Thursday when Eddie Foster outpitched Bub-ber Jonnard and Tribe got one decision out of three from the Volunteers.

The Volunteers got their only run in the opening inning. Two of the Vols had been disposed of when Mike Burke hit a two-bagger to center. McDonald held a high one to High, who in- gressively muffed the ball, Burke scoring. This was the only look-in the Vols had at Eddie Foster, at the Chickadees' right-hand bat, everything in the well-known back, and at no time did the Nashville club really threaten him.

In the fourth inning Carroll scored with a two-bagger and tried to stretch it into a triple, only to be extinguished on a good throw by Wickham. Several times the Tribe had a chance to score, pounding out to him off Jonnard, but not until the eighth were they able to do any material damage to the Nashville pitcher.

The Eighth Tells Tale. In the eighth, however, the beans were spilled all over Sublimar Dell. Carl Manda opened the round with a solid smack to right for one sack. Block kept up the good work by ranning a single to short center. Manda, putting at second, Foster pushed the pair up a notch by a sacrifice. Christenbury singled to center, and Manda registered.

Red Kuhn, Injured Ball Player, Is Now a Policeman

DALLAS, Tex., July 11.—Walter Red Kuhn, former catcher of the Dallas White Sox baseball club, whose days behind the pad and mask were terminated by the snapping of a bath towel, now is a member of the Dallas Police force. Last year, at a training camp in Texas, Kuhn was blinded when he was hit in the eye by a towel, which he had been using to wipe his face. Kuhn has recovered the sight of one eye.

Mike Cleary, star shortstop of the Knights of Columbus team of the Liberty league, Mike has been playing amateur baseball in Memphis for many years, but not until he had gone to France and helped conquer the Kaiser and returned, did Mike begin to show really what a dependable fielder he was. His fielding in older days was ap- praisingly good, but he was reputed as an erratic fielder because he played the ball too fast; however, this season he holds much improved over any previous year and with such apparent ease he makes hard stops look easy. Mike has a tower of strength to the Knights and it seems that the Knights could not have lauded a better man.
